

Cheating/Plagiarism

Because student learning is the primary objective of this school, the faculty and administration of FHSD regard academic dishonesty, cheating, or plagiarism as serious breaches of ethical academic behavior. It is the policy of this school that cheating in any of its forms, e.g., copying homework, copying answers from others' tests, plagiarizing, unethically obtaining copies of tests and quizzes before they are administered in the proper classroom setting, aiding or abetting a cheater, allowing completed work to be used unethically by another student, the perpetration of other academic fraud, or the attempt thereof, constitutes a serious offense which result in disciplinary action.

- 1st Offense: No credit (zero) in the assignment and parent conference. A disciplinary referral will be placed in the students file. May result in additional disciplinary consequences.
- 2nd Offense: No credit (zero) on assignment and parent conference. Students will be referred to an Assistant Principal for additional disciplinary measures, such as Saturday School, and/or suspension from school. Additional violations of this rule will result in additional disciplinary measures.
